

Guitar Notes

A Publication of the Classic Guitar Society of Michigan

March 4, 2008

Edited by Tom Roach

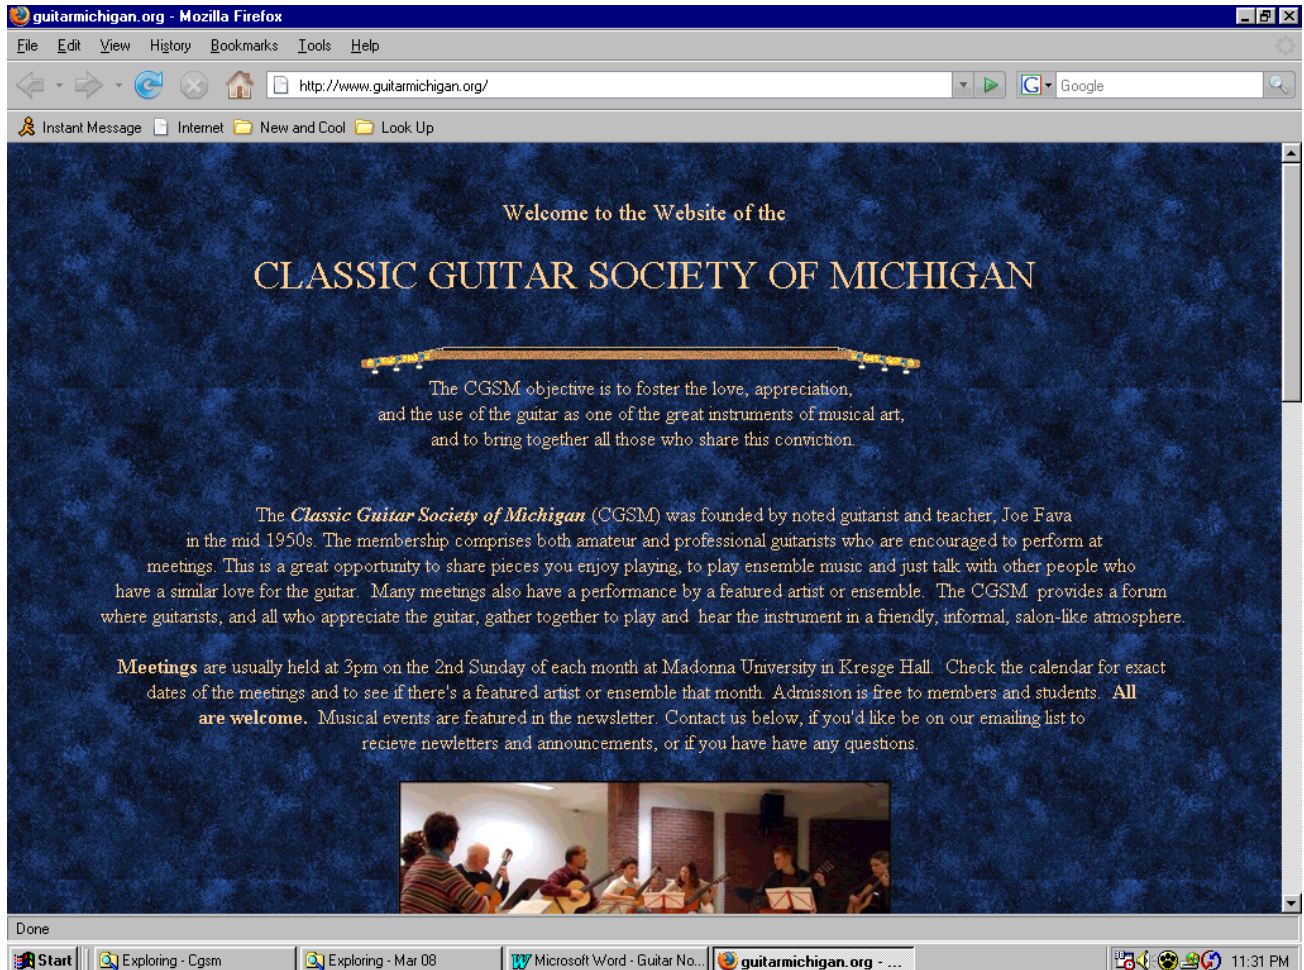

The driving, frigid winds of February could not deter the warm souls of several local guitar lovers from gathering again at Madonna University to chase away the winter blues. We were treated to several solo works from the younger attendees, demonstrating again that much can be accomplished with good instruction and practice.

Following the solo works we resumed the pursuit of the ensemble pieces that we began to develop in January.

IT'S HERE !! . . IT'S HERE !!
WE HAVE A WEBSITE !

www.guitarmichigan.org

After many years of conversation, debate, hoping and dreaming, the CGSM now has an official web site at: www.guitarmichigan.org. This is the product of much effort on the part of Brian Roberts. The site includes a calendar of upcoming events, photographs from meetings and a message / inquiry portal. We hope this will become a valuable resource for the music-loving community and will provide a beacon for drawing additional participation from local musicians.

Our great thanks again to Brian for bringing his skills to bear in the service of the CGSM mission.
